

When the infrastructure you manage is critical, you can't afford any mistakes.

When it comes to your energy infrastructure, no one is more qualified than KEMA to help you make the business and technical decisions needed for maximum ROI, system reliability, operational efficiency, system security and revenue enhancement. With 75 years of energy experience and 1,500 consultants covering all sectors of the energy market, KEMA brings you integrated solutions that span the full range of your management and technology needs.

- Generation
- Distribution
- Retail
- Transmission
- Trading

From enhancing reliability, to automating critical T&D functions, to ensuring cyber security, to reducing asset management costs by up to 15%, KEMA is trusted by utilities the world over to help achieve their strategic business objectives.

KEMA
experience you can trust

www.kemainc.com

business and technical consulting, systems integration, training, testing & inspection—from generation to the customer meter—and from the control room to the board room.